

Wasatch Fair, Dairy Days Open Festivities Friday

1950 or 1951

HEBER (Special)—Committee members Saturday were busy planning feature displays for Wasatch county's annual Fair and Dairy days slated Friday and Saturday of next week.

Highlighting exhibitions at the two-day show will be expanded needlework, foods, arts and crafts, 4-H and flowers departments, with judging in the Wasatch high school slated Thursday so that early fair visitors may see the winning displays.

Two Festive Parades

Celebration events will include two festive parades, a rodeo, horse racing, fireworks and a sports show, according to William J. Bond, general chairman.

A parade Friday at 5:30 p.m. will start festivities with floats from church, civic and business organizations; Park City, Wasatch and Cyprus high school bands; the Magna drum and bugle corps; Boy Scouts of America troops, and veterans' organizations in the lineup. The parade will be repeated Saturday at 9 a.m.

After a Friday evening band concert on the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints tabernacle grounds, events will shift to the Old Mill rodeo arena, where the Heber Valley Riding club will sponsor a rodeo.

Will End Day

A dance in the Heber Social hall will conclude the day.

Saturday the Heber Lions club will touch off a resounding fireworks display in the Heber ball park at 7:30 p.m., followed by a two-hour show of juggling, acrobatics, stunt riding and dancing.

Afternoon activities will include stock judging at the park at 2:30 p.m. and another band concert at 4:30 p.m.

Committee Members Make Final Check

Events for Wasatch County Fair and Dairy days celebration are given final check by committee members, left to right, Mary Bacon, events

Humbly, Jane Gale, who is celebration queen, and Catherine Moulton, seated; W. J. Bond, Storm McDonald and Heber Winterton, standing.

Wasatch Fair, Dairy Days Open Festivities Friday

1950 or 1951

HEBER (Special)—Committee members Saturday were busy planning feature displays for Wasatch county's annual Fair and Dairy days slated Friday and Saturday of next week.

Highlighting exhibitions at the two-day show will be expanded needlework, foods, arts and crafts, 4-H and flowers departments, with judgings in the Wasatch high school slated Thursday so that early fair visitors may see the winning displays.

Two Festive Parades

Celebration events will include two festive parades, a rodeo, horse racing, fireworks and a sports show, according to William J. Bond, general chairman.

A parade Friday at 5:30 p.m. will start festivities with floats from church, civic and business organizations; Park City, Wasatch and Cyprus high school bands; the Magna drum and bugle corps; Boy Scouts of America troops, and veterans' organizations in the lineup. The parade will be repeated Saturday at 9 a.m.

After a Friday evening band concert on the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints tabernacle grounds, events will shift to the Old Mill rodeo arena, where the Heber Valley Riding club will sponsor a rodeo.

'Will End Day

A dance in the Heber Social hall will conclude the day.

Saturday the Heber Lions club will touch off a resounding fireworks display in the Heber ball park at 7:30 p.m., followed by a two-hour show of juggling, acrobatics, stunt riding and dancing.

Afternoon activities will include stock judging at the park at 2:30 p.m. and another band concert at 8:00 p.m.

Committee Members Make Final Check

Events for Wasatch County Fair and Dairy days celebration are given final check by committee members, left to right, Mary Bacon, Jevela

Hamblin, Jane Gale, who is celebration queen, and Catherine Moulton, seated; W. J. Bond, Storm McDonald and Heber Winterton, standing.

Talent Contest Is Set for Wasatch County Fair Days

6-15-67

Now is the time for all good Wasatch County residents to prepare their performing skills Show Contest to be held on for the big Fair Days Talent Contest to be held on August 3rd. Any Wasatch Countyite qualifies and the deadline for entries is July 21st.

Mark and Merle Rasband and Afton and Virginia Thacker are in charge of the Show and are accepting registrations.

Any and all kinds of talent are welcome and the prizes prove it. Senior Division boasts a $20 first prize and is open to all entrants for next year's Sophomores to those 104.

The Junior Division is for talent finds up to next year's freshmen. This Division offers a $1 award to all contestants who win the qualifying contest to perform the final night, except for the winners of the $10 first prize, $7.50 second prize and $5 third prize.